YOUR EXCURSIONS

Belfast

Today we travel to Belfast. Once the home of the Irish linen industry, tobacco production, rope making and the world famous Harland and Wolff shipbuilders, Belfast lays claim to a unique history. Split into quarters, each with its own personality, today it is bursting with fun and excitement. Titanic Quarter, is home to the spectacular Titanic Exhibition, The Gaeltacht Quarter the centre for Irish language and culture, with music, drama and fantastic restaurants and pubs, St Ann's Cathedral. The Cathedral Quarter is packed full of fascinating architecture, from public buildings to renovated warehouse restaurants and last but not least the Queens Quarter is alive with shops, cafes, bars, live venues and the Botanical Gardens.

Enniskillen

Enjoy a day exploring Enniskillen located almost exactly in the centre of the county, between the Upper and Lower sections of Lough Erne. It offers many unique family run shops as well as multi-national stores and has a wealth of excellent pubs and restaurants with many historic monuments and castle. Enjoy soaking up the Irish atmosphere in this beautiful town as you wander around past jetties and along the river.

Letterkenny & Donegal

Our first stop today is Letterkenny. Full of Irish charm and character, traditional Letterkenny offers plenty to entertain with many interesting monuments and buildings both old and new, art galleries and museums, bars and restaurants and excellent shops. In the afternoon we travel south through some of the most breathtaking scenery to Donegal, home to 'The Diamond', a monument dedicated to the four authors of 'The Annuals of the Four Masters'. You will have time to wander around the shops or visit the Donegal Castle, built in the 15th century by O'Donnell chieftains.

ARMAGH CITY HOTEL, ARMAGH

This award winning hotel in Armagh is ready and waiting to warmly welcome you in. With an outstanding range of leisure facilities including a indoor pool, Sauna, Jacuzzi and gym, comfortable rooms, bar & lounge to relax in.

This delightful holiday takes us to some of the best towns and cities Northern Ireland has to offer! With an array of breathtaking scenery, historic monuments and castles, fantastic shops and cafes whilst staying in the lovely Armagh City hotel this holiday really does have something for everyone.

YOUR EXCURSIONS

Saturday

Once aboard the coach enjoy the journey north to the Alexandra Hotel in Fort William for your overnight stay. Enjoy a bubbly drinks reception before a delicious dinner in the restaurant and then relax in the lounge before your journey to some of the most beautiful Islands in Scotland.

Sunday

After breakfast enjoy a scenic journey north to visit the Isle of Skye. Travelling from Fort William along the banks of Loch Lochy, Loch Duich and Loch Long where you will stop for a short time to enjoy the magnificent views at Eilean Donan Castle, before passing by Kyle of Lochalsh and crossing the Skye Bridge. Sit back and enjoy the breath-taking views of the famous Black Cuillin mountains, the small isles Scalpay and Raasay before arriving at the beautiful harbour town of Portree, where you will have time to sample all the local shops and attractions. We then travel further west to Uig where we catch the afternoon ferry crossing to Tarbert on the Isle of Harris. We travel north to Stornoway for the first of three night stay in the Caladh Inn near the harbour, where you will enjoy a warm welcome and delicious food.

Monday

A full day tour of Lewis today as we visit some of the famous sights here including the standing stones at Callanish, erected 5000 years ago in an extraordinary cruciform shape. There is a visitor centre nearby to learn all about the mystical stones. After time here, travel north to see the Blackhouse at No 42. Arnol, a fully furnished thatched house that gives a special insight into how life was on the island many years ago. Explore the cottage and attached barns then take a scenic journey back towards Stornoway passing by unspoilt landscapes and beautiful lochs, arriving back in time for dinner.

Tuesday

After breakfast enjoy time to yourself in Stornoway to explore all of its sights including Lews Castle and Museum Nan Eilean, the towns' Art Centre and many gift and craft shops before the coach takes you out for the afternoon for a tour of Harris. You will pass some of the most spectacular white sandy beaches of Luskenyre and Skarista before arriving at St Clements Church in Rodel at the South of Harris. Built in 1520 by Alexander MacLeod whose tomb lies inside. You are free to explore the beautiful building with its interesting carvings and impressive tower before travelling back to Stornoway in time for your evening meal.

Wednesday

After an early breakfast we depart Stornoway on the morning ferry crossing to Ullapool. After arriving here with some time to explore the fishing village, the coach will take you south through the stunning scenery of Wester Ross for your last night stay with us in the Nethybridge Hotel. Arriving early afternoon you will have time to relax in the lounge bar before your drinks reception and delicious evening meal served in the Abernethy Restaurant. There will be some light evening entertainment to follow.

Thursday

After a full breakfast, we depart the hotel in the morning for the return journey back home.
